

Where Airliner Crashed Short of Airfield

How close the Tudor transport plane came to reaching Llandow airport near Cardiff, Wales, when it crashed, March 12, killing 80 persons, is shown in this airview. Wreckage of the huge plane lies in a field at the edge of Sigginston village. At the top of the picture, on the other side of the village, are the runways and hangars of the airport. The chartered plane, returning from Dublin with Welsh football fans, appeared to be approaching for a normal landing when, without warning, it roared back into a climb. It smashed to earth after making a right turn and side-slipping. Curving path of plane as shown by mark on ground at lower left. (A.P. Wirephoto by radio from London)

O'Dwyer Asks $50,000 Sum To Finance Rain-Making

Rent and Thruway Get Top Priorities

Quarrel Over Legislation Viewed as Prelude to Fall Campaign

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—Republican and Democratic party chiefs moved in today and gave top state election campaign priority to Governor Dewey's controversial rent control and thruway construction proposals.

They apparently regarded the bitter, inter-party brawl on the issues in the Legislature as a prelude to an even more scorching battle in next fall's gubernatorial campaign.

The G.O.P. state chairman, William L. Pfeiffer, accused the Democrats last night of "a feeble attempt to misconstruct" Dewey's plan to create a public authority to build the $450,000,000 thruway with state-backed bonds.

Pfeiffer said the Democratic chairman, Paul F. Fitzpatrick, "obviously doesn't understand that the plan will not cost the taxpayer a cent."

Meanwhile, Fitzpatrick comes to Albany today for a strategy battle with the Democratic legislative leaders. They will continue their long-time opposition to the thruway despite endorsement of it by Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York.

Fitzpatrick charged Sunday that Dewey's bond-financed authority plan was "a tricky attempt to avoid placing the cost of the thruway in the state budget, where it rightfully belongs."

He said the state should give priority to school and mental hospital construction.

The G.O.P. legislative chiefs, replying last night to severe criticism by Mayor O'Dwyer, said the administration rent control measure would require "the tightest rent ever used" as a basis for rent increases that could be granted after next Dec. 1.

Criticism Denied

They categorically denied O'Dwyer's seven-point criticism, implying that it was motivated by political reasons. Among other things, O'Dwyer contended the G.O.P. bill would result in "wild rent increases" and "thousands of evictions" after next Feb. 15.

The G.O.P. leaders said:

"The protection of tenants in our state from exorbitant, runaway rent increases is not a matter (Continued on Page 8, Col. 5)

Thomas J. Keeley Dies at Ossining

Thomas J. Keeley, 64, who as principal keeper at Sing Sing prison, Ossining, escorted 89 murderers to the electric chair, died today of a heart attack.

A native of Saugerties, he is the father of Gordon Keeley, Saugerties policeman.

Keeley died in his room at the prison, where he had lived since the death of his wife two years ago, the Associated Press said.

A giant of a man, more than six feet tall and weighing 300 pounds, Keeley entered the State Department of Correction employ in 1913 as a prison guard. He was at Great Meadows, Constock and other prisons until 1921 when he came to Sing Sing.

He became assistant principal keeper in 1925 and principal keeper in 1941. During that time he participated in more than 200 executions.

His son, Gordon, was his only child.

Rhee Wins Fight

Seoul, Korea, March 14 (AP)—President Syngman Rhee of the (South) Korean Republic today won his fight to keep control of his own cabinet. A proposed constitutional amendment to make the cabinet responsible to the National Assembly failed to muster the necessary two-thirds vote of assemblymen present.

Schneider Is New Uptown Business Men's President

Regular Meeting Is Held and Others Are Chosen; Will Support State Tournament

George W. Schneider was elected president of the Uptown Business Men's Association at a regular meeting today. Clyde E. Wonderly, Jr., was elected vice-president and Mrs. Ruth Guido was re-elected secretary. Stuart Randall, who has been treasurer, declined re-election but consented to continue in office until the nominating committee, Jesse Schlessinger, chairman, secures a candidate.

President Matt Morgan turned the meeting over to the new president following the election and Schneider continued the meeting.

A resolution was adopted approving the fund drive of the Kingston Women's Bowling Association and each merchant will contribute toward the state tournament expenses according to his individual desire.

The Association voted approval of the plan to have the bowling tournament opening parade start from Academy Green Friday night, rather than further congest the shopping areas by starting at the stadium.

The matter of "suit clubs" which has been taken up with city officials was discussed. It was reported Mayor Newkirk had been contacted in regard to the clubs and had classified them as "lay away plan" clubs rather than a "suit club" problem. Their work might well set a standard for similar problems in water procurement in many parts of the world.

O'Dwyer made his announcement following a conference in which six scientists from New York city colleges approved recommendations by Dr. Wallace E. Howell, Harvard University meteorologist retained by the city.

The mayor said the experiments would provide a wide study of cloud conditions and would test all known methods of cloud seeding.

O'Dwyer said he couldn't imagine any legal obstacles to the plan.

However, a bill was introduced in the State Legislature at Albany yesterday which would give the State Water Commission authority to regulate artificial rain-making.

Some upstate officials have objected to the city's rain-making plan, claiming that the city might take water needed in other areas, or cause flood damage in some sections.

The city's reservoirs now stand at about 51 per cent of capacity, compared to 92.7 per cent a year ago at this time.

Texans Hunt Desert Hills For Handcuffed Fugitive

Marfa, Tex., March 14 (AP)—The hunt for the killer of a Texas sheriff today had all the elements of a wild west thriller—a handcuffed fugitive afoot in a rugged mountain chain, pursued by an armed posse on horseback.

Gun-faced sheriffs of the Big Bend country of southwest Texas, Texas rangers and border riders were to ride at dawn—gun belts buckled tight—seeking again the trail of the unidentified slayer.

The shooting early Sunday of Sheriff O. W. (Blackie) Morrow, 33, on a lonely mountain road slipped back the pages of time to the days of the old west.

It brought back the posse on horseback—booted men packing six-shooters; the sign cutters—men who can read a story in a smashed cactus, a scuffed patch of grass.

Texas Ranger Gully Cowart rode into Marfa late last night and said a mounted posse had tracked the killer of Morrow 15 miles through rugged mountains, but lost his trail near the Mexican border.

Cowart led the posse again this morning. River riders patrolled the Rio Grande through the night to prevent the killer from slipping into Mexico—if he hasn't done so.

Morrow, a popular navy veteran serving his second term, was shot and left dying early Sunday on a lonely road between here and Presidio, nestling against the Rio Grande. The sheriff, blood pouring from a hole through the left side of his body, managed to get into his car and drive a mile toward Presidio before he died.

When the posse found the trail they had this theory:

The husky, six-foot sheriff apparently had stopped to make an arrest. His pistol and handcuffs were missing, so he might have been shot with his own gun.

Cowart and his posse pushed into the jumble of barren mountains—covered only by desert growth. As he related his story, the trail sign told that:

Their quarry was handcuffed and must have had terribly hard going. There was evidence of his fallen into ocotillo bushes—cactus plants with needle-like spines that seem to spring free of the bush and into the skin. "Jumping cactus," they are sometimes called.

He was headed for the Rio Grande, snake-like river boundary between the United States and Mexico.

The trackers could tell the hunted was handcuffed from the way his hands dug into the ground when he fell among the big bend's rocks and cactus.

They found an empty cartridge case and an unused shell, both .38-44 caliber, the same as Morrow's six-shooter. This strengthened the belief the sheriff was killed with his own gun.

Town Road Bill Passes Senate Test

Ten-Year Program Goes to Assembly; State Inheritance Tax Cut Voted

Final Date Set
Adjournment May Come March 22, if Work Is Finished

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—A 10-year, $146,400,000 program for improvement of town roads today headed for final legislative approval over general Democratic opposition.

The Republican majority jammed the proposal through the Senate last night as both Houses battled a bill pile-up that practically killed chances for final adjournment this week. Leaders now believe the 1950 session will wind up March 22.

Although Senate Leader Arthur H. Wickes reiterated on the floor that "we'll make every effort to get out this week," he indicated privately that adjournment would come next week, probably Wednesday.

In the Assembly, Majority Leader Lee B. Muller said that "it looks like we will go into next week."

Other developments:

1. The Senate gave final legislative approval to a bill cutting by as much as 29 per cent the amount of state inheritance tax a surviving spouse must pay.

2. The Senate voted, 31-20, over solid Democratic opposition, to exempt non-profit, small, rural cemeteries from a 1949 amendment to curbing abuses and fraud in the sale of cemetery lots.

3. Bills were introduced to implement the Moore Plan for localities to build schools. They call for emergency loans to a few financially-pinned upstate school districts, and increases in constitutional debt limits for all cities.

4. A measure was introduced to give the state Water Power and Control Commission authority to regulate artificial rainmaking activities.

The bill to set up the town highway program was sponsored by the temporary Commission on Agriculture, through G.O.P. Senator Aaron W. Erwin of Genesee, its chairman.

Democratic opposition was expressed by Senate Leader Elmer F. Quinn. He contended that the state should concentrate on construction and improvement of mental hospitals, instead of roads.

Expected to Pass

The overwhelmingly Republican majority in the Assembly is expected to push the program through to Governor Dewey late this week.

The agriculture commission estimated that about one-half of the $146,400,000 would be provided by the state as financial aid to localities. This would be in addition to present state aid for town highways. The state would pay from 25 to 75 per cent of the cost, depending on a town's assessed valuation.

34 Are Indicted, Also 9 Firms, on Income Tax Counts

War-time Gains Are Hit and Estimate Owed to Government Is 2 Millions

New York, March 14 (AP)—Federal prosecutors went to work today on a stack of indictments accusing 34 persons and nine firms of cheating the government out of more than two million dollars in wartime income taxes.

A special federal grand jury returned 23 indictments yesterday, almost on the eve of tomorrow's deadline for payment of 1949 income taxes. More indictments were expected today.

The defendants allegedly failed to report income totaling an estimated $2,819,081 between the years 1942 and 1946, thereby defrauding the government of $2,082,849 in taxes.

The individuals, most of them New York business men in the high income brackets, were scheduled for arraignment tomorrow before Federal Judge Harold R. Medina.

U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol said most of the defendants concealed money made on the black market during the days of rationing and scarcity.

Others, he said, failed to report income from military accessories sold in post exchanges.

Face 30 Years

Some of the defendants, named in six counts, face possible prison terms of 30 years—five years for each count—and heavy fines if convicted. The corporations are liable to heavy fines.

Convictions also would open the way for the government to collect back taxes and penalties totalling an estimated $4,000,000.

Saypol said most of the individuals and firms apparently operated independently of one another.

To conceal profits, he added, they used such means as destroying papers, cashing checks without recording them, and setting up secret bank accounts.

Among major defendants is Samuel L. Lehis, 53, of New York city, head of a corporation that controls hotels in Flushing (Queens (Sanford), Boston (Bostonian), Pittsburgh (Fort Pitt) and Washington (Ritz).

Woman Denies Remembering Gunshot That Slew Husband

Frankfurt, Germany, March 14 (AP)—In a faint, sobbing whisper, pretty Mrs. Xvete Madsen testified in her own defense today that she could remember nothing of the gunshot that killed her fier husband last October.

On trial for the murder of her husband, Lt. Andrew E. Madsen, the 22-year-old brunette has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

"I think I was drunk," Mrs. Madsen testified while telling of a party which preceded the shooting at the couple's home. She said she couldn't remember the "insult" at her Brooklyn apartment where the prosecution claims drove her to shoot down her husband.

With her head down and shaking from sobs, Mrs. Madsen told of returning alone to her home and finding a gun while looking for some sleeping pills. She said she heard the doorbell ring and her husband came in.

Governor Signs 'Forgiveness' Law

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—That 10 per cent "forgiveness" in your state income tax is official for another year.

A measure continuing the reduction was among 15 budget bills signed by Governor Dewey today. They implement much of Dewey's 1950-51 state budget of $861,725,000.

The "forgiveness" means that you pay only 90 per cent of your 1950 state income tax on 1949 earnings.

The tax—or the first installment—is due April 15. You compute your tax at the full, normal rate. After determining the tax, you deduct 10 per cent and pay the remaining 90 per cent to the State Tax Commission.

Charges Denied

The charges were denied by Mrs. Michel, who is free on bail pending a hearing March 21 on the sheriff's complaint.

Then her real mother, Mrs. Lena Brunson, 35, of Nederland, Tex., sought to regain custody of Lora Lee. At a Feb. 8 Superior Court session Lora Lee was in the midst of a hair-pulling tug-of-war between Mrs. Brunson and Mrs. Michel who had adopted the child in 1945.

There was a flurry of kicking and punching among the principals and friends of both sides.

Later Judge A. C. Scott ruled that Mrs. Brunson had no right to the child and that the Michel's adoption process was legal. The jurist advised that the Michel's take the child out of the movies and back to their home in Schulenburg, Texas.

No Mystery Involved

Stipensburg, Pa., March 14 (AP)—State police said today they are satisfied no "mysterious" factors contributed to the crash of a single-engine plane, in which three men were injured in the Pocono Mountains near here yesterday. Edward McGroarty, state police aviation inspector, said it had been established that ice formation on the wings and fuselage of the Beechcraft Bonanza caused the pre-dawn crash in a sleet storm.

Work Will Begin in Spring; Some Substitutions Made

Contracts totaling $1,194,893 for erection of the Washington elementary school on the former Sahler property at Wall street and Washington avenue, were authorized last evening by the Board of Education in special session.

Successful bidders will be notified immediately and contracts, subject to approval by the corporation counsel, will then be signed. Work will get under way this spring.

Meeting with the board Monday evening was Harry Halverson, architect, who with board members had made a study of the various alternatives. To the base bid of $909,535 submitted by I. & O. A. Slutzky of Hunter, he added $285,358. Alternates include:

Substitution of concrete for bluestone steps and walks, $5,000 was deducted from the base bid. Substitution of cedar blocks for terra cotta for interior partitions $500 was deducted. Back on Job

At a custody hearing Feb. 8, a superior judge had advised the Michels to take the girl out of the movies and back to Texas so that she might enjoy a normal childhood. The father, parents agreed but recently Lora Lee was reported back at her movie job.

The custody fight started last Jan. 12 when Lora Lee was removed from the Michels' home by Dep. Sheriff Beas Bailey. The child had complained that her foster parents made her diet so strict that she could play $100-a-day movie roles. The officer said then that the child weighed only 45 pounds and complained she was hungry all the time. Mrs. Bailey also quoted the child as saying she was whipped because she once gained a pound.

Tells of Duran

Washington, March 14 (AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) charged today that the State Department gave a high post to a former Spanish Republican army officer, Gustavo Duran, although U. S. Army reports labeled him a Russian agent.

Continuing to detail to a Senate investigating committee his contention that the department has employed poor security risks, McCarthy also said that:

Dr. Hallow Shapley, American delegate to a United Nations commission, has been affiliated with at least 36 Communist-front organizations.

A reported sexual perversion did not identify the person, he said, "allowed to resign" from the State Department in 1948 and now is employed by the Central Intelligence Administration at $12,000 a year.

He has heard reports that John Stewart Service, American consul at Calcutta, was considered a security risk by the Loyalty Appeal Board of the Civil Service Commission in a decision released last March 3. McCarthy said the Senate investigators to check on this.

Duran was formerly an assistant in the assistant secretary of state in charge of Latin American affairs. McCarthy said he left the State Department in 1948 after intense congressional pressure and criticism.

As of yesterday, McCarthy said Duran was employed as a representative of the International League of Nations, an agency of the United Nations.

McCarty was before a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee to continue detailing his charges that the State Department kept poor security risks on its payroll.

Mutual Bill Approved

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—A bill to slash from five to one per cent the maximum tax that cities and counties may levy on parking and other taxes on horse races was approved by the Senate today. The reduction would be graduated one per cent a year beginning in 1952 until it reaches one per cent in 1955. The five per cent tax, first authorized in 1946, applies to flat tracks only, not harness race betting. The state's only flat tracks are in New York city and Nassau and Saratoga counties, which have been levying the local tax.

Truman Suffers Seasickness on His Cruise South

Aboard the U.S.S. William C. Lawe, March 14 (AP)—Messages from the White House yacht Williamsburg, buffeted by rough seas, indicated today that President Truman is suffering from seasickness on route to Key West, his Florida vacation retreat.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross didn't come right out and say so in reports to newsmen aboard this escorting destroyer. But Ross did say that the President, who has remained in his cabin since Sunday night, felt a little better today. And, he predicted without consulting Mr. Truman, that the President may frown on taking another trip to Florida by sea.

Asked whether Mr. Truman—who often has flown to Florida—would undertake another trip by ship to Key West, Ross replied:

"I will say it will not be one of his favorite ways."

The secretary, who has been unavailable himself at times to make periodic reports to newsmen by radio-telephone, mentioned that Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham's new anti-seasickness capsule apparently has been no match for the effects of the rough waves.

Ross didn't say what kind of pill the presidential physician had been offering, but he told reporters:

"Opinions vary as to the efficacy of the pill. Some have the opinion it is nothing more than a bread pill. Some seem to think it may do some good. I will not give you my opinion."

Ross added that Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, the President's army aide, has been prostrate most of the time. Others of Mr. Truman's aides aboard the Williamsburg also have been reported ill or confined to their cabins.

Reports that there has been a surge of seasickness aboard the yacht were denied last night. The ship has been buffeted by stormy seas all along the Carolinas coast. Mr. Truman stayed in bed all day yesterday. Official word was that his meals were "light." Graham, who has been hoping Mr. Truman will lose off several of his 175 pounds, should have been pleased by that news.

Truckmen Report They Flagged Cars At L. I. Crossing

Baldwin, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—An investigation was called today into a report that a watchman at a heavily traveled Long Island Railroad crossing left his post just before a train roared past.

Nassau County District Attorney Frank Galotta said two truck drivers informed him they found the crossing unguarded yesterday, with rush-hour vehicular traffic steaming across the tracks in front of an approaching east-bound train.

With no time to lower the crossing gates, they said, they averted a possible disaster by standing on both sides of the track and halting automobile traffic.

Just as the train passed, they said, the unidentified watchman ran out of a nearby lunch room, but the train was gone when he reached his shanty.

The railroad, which said it had no immediate details on the incident, called the watchman to a hearing today. His name was not given.

Galotta said he would look into the matter as part of an overall probe into safety conditions on the railroad, on which 32 persons were killed Feb. 17 in a head-on crash of two passenger trains at Rockville Centre.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Rep. Mace (R-N.Y.) introduced a bill to direct the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the railroad's safety device.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York, March 14 (AP)—The women folk have discovered recently what fun they can have at a stockholders' meeting, just by asking questions. Today they're looking for bigger game.

Some of them, it seems, will never be happy until they land on the board of directors. They should have twice as much fun there. They might learn a lot. And they say they could do the boards some good, too.

Up or off the directorate, they've already sighted a target for their criticism—the chairman of the board. He's the one who presides over the stockholders' annual meeting. And some of the girls have got up a report card—giving various chairmen the grades of A, B, C and D for conduct.

It's sad to report, but quite a number of the best known corporations have top-level front men who rate D with the girls for appearance, manners and parliamentary aplomb.

A famous chairman of a noted financial institution is so rated and further described as "behind the times." However, the number two man of his concern is rated the "handsomest president" by this particular league of militant and crusading women stockholders. (The Federation of Women Shareholders in American Business, Inc.). They say they organized to give women stockholders more control over their ownership and to fight for "stockholders' rights" in general.

Couldn't Stem Tide
Other chairmen drawing low marks include ones who "couldn't stem the tide" who "vied with his general counsel in contempt" for women stockholders, or who let the meeting "get out of hand."

Top score, however, is reserved for the chairman who provided no transportation to the meeting and "left stranded his only two women stockholders at six degrees above zero."

In a special class is the chairman of a widely known corporation who "loves the ladies, but not on the board"—a sad lack of understanding, in the view of the girls. They answer his implied criticism by admitting that a woman should be qualified if she is to hold a directorate, but they add: "We are going to examine just how qualified some of the men on the boards are."

But, gentlemen, don't despair. Some of you chairmen get A for effort. Here are what the girls say about you. "He has polish," or "rates A for diplomacy," or "provides comfortable chairs"; or, alas, merely, "He tried to please."

Top grade of all, double A's, go to the chairmen with what it really takes to please the ladies. One who heads a large corporation is described as "forty-ish—expects to live a long time with his stockholders."

His Appointed One
Another wins the top accolade for personally welcoming women stockholders and answers their questions by complimenting them on their intuition, and a third—a natural—for appointing a woman to the board.

But, alas, another corporation much in the public eye is run by a board of "directors" (speakeasyed by a bachelor) who are puzzled as to what a woman could contribute to the board. The girls, it appears, breathlessly await the chance to tell them.

Lunch—or rather the absence of it—is quite a thorn in the side, too. The report bristles with such comments as "Management still holding out against light stockholder lunch," or "flirting with lunch this year."

But even so, the stockholders' meetings are fun, as one of the group told the others at a recent meeting.

"I hadn't realized I could go to a stockholders' meeting until you took me to Hoboken two weeks ago."

"Why, I thought it better than any show or night club I'd been to in years. I'll never miss another one."

If Leopold abdicates, indications are that all parties will unite in welcoming Baudouin to the throne.

Use of End Play Can Be Valuable

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

When the life masters individual tournament was over this year, most of the players thought that Robert Appleyard of Forest Hills, N. Y., had won it. As a matter of fact, Morrie Ellis, the winner, went home and to bed without waiting for the scores. But when the final results came out, Appleyard had to be content with second place—which is not bad in a field of 56 life masters.

To make a small slam contract on today's hand, Appleyard (South) had a problem to keep from losing two spade tricks; but he successfully used the end play, one of the most valuable tools of the skilled player.

West's opening lead was the jack of hearts. Appleyard had nothing to lose by going up with dummy's queen. East covered with the king and Appleyard won the trick with the ace. He immediately returned the ace of diamonds, followed by the jack of clubs, overtaking in dummy with the queen.

The king of diamonds was played next and the five of hearts discarded. West's top of diamonds dropped, establishing dummy's nine.

Appleyard now could see the danger that he might have to lose two spade tricks, so he decided to strip the hand down. A small heart was led from dummy and trumped with the ten of clubs. The three of clubs was led, won in dummy with the nine, the three of hearts was returned and trumped with the jack of clubs.

Then declarer led the king of clubs and overtook in dummy with the ace. The nine of diamonds was returned and the five of spades discarded. West discarded the deuce of spades; therefore Appleyard now led a small spade and finessed the ten, West winning with the queen.

West had nothing left but the king and nine of spades and ten of hearts. If he returned a heart, declarer would trump in dummy and discard his losing jack of spades. If he returned a spade, it would be into declarer's ace-jack.

Pomona Grange Objects To Rain-Making Legislation

ULSTER COUNTY POMONA GRANGE
Lake Katrine New York
William T. Hookey, Jr.,
Master
Lake Katrine, N. Y.

This resolution originated in Mount Tremper Grange and was adopted by the Ulster County Pomona Grange in session at Katikill, March 3, 1950.

We, the undersigned officers, representing the membership of the Ulster County Pomona Grange, have been instructed by vote of the grange to voice our objection to the proposed bill now before the New York State Legislature in regard to artificial rain-making by the City of New York over the area known as the Catskill Mountain Watershed. It is the intent of said bill in part, to absolve the City of New York of any and all liability for damages or erosion to individual lands, possessions and crops incurred either as a direct or indirect result of said artificial rain-making sponsored or under the direction of the City of New York or duly accredited agents thereof.

We, of the Ulster County Pomona Grange, respectfully petition the State Legislature to take the above stated legislation under consideration, and to act in our behalf and in the public interest. We feel this matter to be of the utmost concern of every farmer and landowner in Ulster and surrounding counties as rainfall of cloudburst proportions would tend to cause untold crop damage and resultant loss to farmers wherever the artificial rainfall area may be.

We respectfully submit our objections to the proposed legislation as follows:

That past experiments in artificial rain-making have proved successful in producing rain. That in certain areas where these experiments have been successful, a deluge of rain has followed, which has reached proportions of an uncontrollable cloudburst and resultant floods and erosion.

That property owners in the upper Esopus valley have suffered serious hardship, erosion, property damage and loss of life as a direct result of flood waters.

That upon occasions when the Esopus has been in flood stage, the City of New York has refused requests to close the Schenck Aqueduct carrying water from the Glilboa Reservoir into the Esopus Creek, when such requests were made to alleviate the flooded stream and prevent further damage.

That artificial rain-making over the Catskill Mountain Watershed could effect serious floods causing unlimited hardship and loss of life and property to residents of the area. It is self-evident that the City of New York is aware of this danger in sponsoring legislation to absolve them of liability for damage incurred thereby.

That it is not only the concern of residents of this area but the concern of all upper New York state and adjacent New England. After rain clouds are treated, the area of rainfall is dependent entirely upon changing winds, and climatic conditions exist at that time.

That the passage of the proposed legislation would perpetuate a grave injustice upon residents of the affected area from which they would have no recourse or protection and in addition we believe a violation of inalienable rights guaranteed landowners. We believe we are expressing the sentiments of the majority of residents of the area in addition to the sentiments of Ulster County Pomona Grange.

Fraternally yours,
HAROLD V. STORY,
Chairman of Legislative Committee
GUY GARDNER,
Member of Legislative Committee
Secretary of Legislative Committee
WILLIAM T. HOOKEY, JR.,
Master of Ulster County Pomona Grange.

P.S.—If your Grange is in favor of this resolution, please write your senator and assemblyman NOW. Immediate action is necessary as the New York State Legislature expects to adjourn within two weeks.

HUNTER AND HUNTED, and on apparently friendly terms, were Gen. John J. ("Black Jack") Pershing and Mexican bandit chieftain Pancho Villa. This picture of the pair was made during the "watchful waiting" period at the Mexican border, before Villa made his raid across the border to sack the town of Columbus, N. M. Following this incident in 1916, President Wilson ordered Pershing to lead a force into Mexico to capture the roving bandit. Pershing didn't catch Villa, but he and his troops gained valuable field experience that was to serve them well in France. Shortly after the Mexican adventure, Pershing sailed for France to command the American Expeditionary Force in World War I. Villa, sometimes called "Robin Hood of Mexico," was ambushed and killed in 1923.

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—The Legislature believes that speakers who tell high school seniors how to be successful in life should be paid for their efforts. The Assembly gave final approval last night to a bill that would permit boards of education to pay commencement speakers. The measure was sent to Governor Dewey.

4 times as great as that of the Automotive Industry as a whole*...

*% the four post-war years just ended, Nash sales have increased 96.7% over the same period previous, while the industry registered only a 21.5% gain, post-war over pre-war.

WHY NASH?

Why Nash? Because Nash has consistently led in the power parade—builder of valve-in-head engines for a third of a century—leader in high compression.

Because today Nash alone builds a valve-in-head engine of 7.3 to 1 compression ratio that utilizes regular gasoline.

Why Nash? Because Nash was first with automatically-controlled, pressurized heating and ventilation, probably the greatest single health, comfort and safety feature of the modern automobile.

Because today's Nash Weather Eye Conditioned Air System is still first in efficiency and in safety—with fresh, unfiltered air drawn from above the engine compartment.

Why Nash? Because Nash has been foremost in advocating greater gas economy.

Because Nash today builds a big full-size car, that delivers more than 25 miles to the gallon at average highway speed.

Why Nash? Because Nash was first to mass-produce the Unitized, welded body-and-frame car, that is more rigid, durable, safer and free of squeaks and rattles.

Because today, 12 billion owner miles have proved that Unitized Nash Airframe Construction has set a new standard for long life.

Why Nash? Because today's Nash Airflyte cars by scientific wind-tunnel test have been proved to have 20.7% less air drag than the average of 10 other cars tested—with noticeably less wind-noise, less fuel consumption, and noticeably greater stability.

Why Nash? Because Nash was first to attack the problem of rust by Bonderizing and by more durable baked enamel.

Because today all sheet metal parts of a Nash Airflyte are many times more resistant to wear and fading.

Why Nash? Because today's Nash Airflytes offer more combined passenger and luggage space, dollar for dollar, than any other car.

Why Nash? Because Nash has been years ahead in the development of the car interior. First to have the curved, one-piece windshield on all models, and Uniscope—and today the only car offering an Airhues Reclining Seat and Twin Beds.

Easter Petals In Headlines

Big Picture

Medium Picture

Bonnet

New York — (NEA) — Fragile as a flower and just as pretty are the airy Easter bonnets for 1950.

Petal shapes, borrowed from roses, dahlias, chrysanthemums, field flowers and leaves, blossom on hats of every design from the bicorne to the face-framing picture hat.

Designer Brangaard, for example, takes two stylized leaf patterns in natural lagoon straw and overlaps them at the tips to form the gently curling brim line for a bicorne. Black velvet ribbon outlines the brim and circles the crown to tie in a flat bow at the side.

Chrysanthemum petals in stiffened white cotton organdie curl around the face in Brangaard's profile cloche, which covers the right ear and leaves the left exposed. The petals are stitched to a white braid straw crown which hugs the head.

Layer upon layer of pale pink silk rose petals are used by designer Walter Florell to make a fluffy, medium-sized picture hat with a forward-pitched brim line. Two roses of a slightly deeper pink, tied with dark green velvet ribbon, are poised on the top side of the brim.

Bright petals of colorful red poppies, buttercups and minnows have atop a lacey straw bonnet designed by Sally Victor. The flowers, massed at the front of the turned-up brim, are tied with green velvet ribbon.

Curling dahlia petals of pink organdie form the flattering face-framing brim of a big picture hat designed by John-Frederick. This concoction has a pink horsehair crown.

Program Is Fixed For Poultry Show

The following program has been listed for the poultry equipment exhibit and consumers education show at the municipal auditorium on Wednesday, March 15.

The program will be presented at 2 p. m. and repeated at 8 p. m. The public is invited without charge.

Mrs. Frank Cox, Modona, president, will open the program with a summary of information on the nutrition value of eggs.

Miss Pearl DeForce, Tilton, will demonstrate and explain the grading and candling of eggs, and will discuss the use of various grades of eggs.

Mrs. George Brown, Hurley, will talk on the care of eggs from the time they are laid until they are consumed. A 4-H Club boy, to be announced, will also talk on the care of eggs from the producer's viewpoint.

A demonstration of how fresh and older eggs are pouched will be given.

Miss DeForce will discuss proper temperatures for cooking eggs. Nancy Ellsworth, Port Ewen, Jean Kelder, Kripplush, and Jacqueline Sheely, Kyserko, all 4-H Club members, will demonstrate three egg dishes.

Miss DeForce will tell how to select good fowl, fryers and broilers—fresh or frozen.

Mrs. Brown will explain the use of dressed chicken, vicerated and cut up chickens.

Miss DeForce will discuss how to cook fowl and avoid shrinkage and loss of food value.

The program, worked out by the Home Bureau, 4-H Club and Farm Bureau, will be presented at the dining room of the municipal auditorium, in conjunction with an exhibit of poultry equipment in the main auditorium. The exhibit will open at 1 p. m. and will remain open until about 10:30 p. m. The show has been planned by the poultry commodity committee of the Farm Bureau.

In addition to the talks and demonstrations of interest to the consumer, there will be several more technical discussions of disease control and other factors in poultry production, to be delivered by members of the College of Agriculture faculty at Cornell. A total of 14 exhibitors have indicated that they would show all types of poultry equipment.

Protected Killers

Twenty-nine deaths occurred in a recorded group of 34 persons bitten by diamondback rattlesnakes, but rattlers are protected in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Town Roads . . .

about $7,300,000 annually if all towns participated, the commission estimated.

Under the proposal, town boards would have until June 1, 1951, to plan their 10-year programs. The plans would be subject to approval by county boards of supervisors and the state public works superintendent. The program would go into effect April 1, 1952.

The bill to exempt small cemeteries from the 1949 state law also was sponsored by Ervin. He said it was intended to aid "small, up-state, rural cemeteries."

When Democratic Senator Samuel L. Greenberg of Manhattan asked him what percentage that would be, Ervin said that it affected 93 per cent of the cemeteries now controlled under the law.

Community Property Plan

The bill to reduce state inheritance taxes for a surviving spouse actually would set up a community property plan, similar to that now permitted under federal tax law.

One-half the estate passing to a surviving spouse would be exempt from the state tax. This inheritance would be taxable upon the death of the survivor.

The State Bar Association, which sponsored the measure, estimated it would cut up to 29 per cent from the amount of tax required under present law.

The measure was aimed at discouraging wealthy persons now living in the state from moving to states that have community property plans.

Mayor Erasmus Corning of Albany requested the bill to give control of rain-making activities to the State Water Power Commission.

He wants to block New York City's effort to induce more water to fall on the city's rain-shy watershed. He says New York's plan, if successful, might deprive Albany of some of its natural water supply.

ing baseball games on Friday evenings during the summer was discussed. It was voted to request league games start at 9:15 o'clock on Friday nights in order that clerks and store proprietors may attend the games and also this would cause less interference to shopping.

President Schneider suggested the association hold meetings at least once a month or more often if matters for discussion came up. He also suggested that the members conduct a "member bring a member" campaign in the future where a member will contact another member and bring him or her along to meetings.

This will increase attendance and give greater representation on controversial matters.

It was also suggested that an evening dinner meeting might stimulate interest.

Al Kurd, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was present and spoke on activities which the Chamber is taking to assist retail business establishments. He reported a Kingston delegation which went to Lakewood, N. J., on Saturday to discuss arrangements for the Kingston baseball team to use Lakewood facilities for spring training, had been most cordially received.

Contracts Are Awarded

The contract for electrical work went to the low bidder, Hewitt & Worden, Inc., 14 South Water street, Newburgh, whose base bid was $80,690. The only alternate accepted for electric work was substitution of low brightness aluminum troffers in place of regular fluorescent troffers as specified. This added $6,980 to the base bid bringing the total contract to $87,670.

Plumbing work went to E. W. Tompkins Co., Inc., of 22 Market street, Albany, for the low bid price of $63,856. The alternate submitted was not accepted.

Heating and ventilating work was awarded to James H. Martin, Inc., of 809 West 43rd street, New York City, low bidder, for $107,472, with the alternate of $1,800 deduction to be considered later by the board.

Vice President Charles Katz presided at the meeting in the absence of President Robert Herzog. Katz explained the purpose of the meeting, that of awarding the contracts for the erection of the new Washington elementary school. Katz stated that the alternates had been considered at a meeting Saturday night with Architect Halverson and the board was now ready to award the contracts.

A formal resolution was offered and adopted authorizing Halverson to prepare contracts, subject to approval of the corporation counsel and following final approval by the State Education Department, have the contracts signed by the successful bidders.

There was no further business transacted.

"If you did shoot him, did you mean to?" Gower asked.

"No, I loved Andy," she replied, still crying quietly.

The Brooklyn-born mother of two children, gave rambling and confused testimony, saying repeatedly she didn't know what happened.

At one point, however, she was asked on cross-examination: "Are you sorry you killed him?" She replied: "Yes."

Earlier, she was questioned about an argument witnesses said she had with another officer at the party. Witnesses said the officer, who spoke with a southern drawl, "twisted" her about her Brooklyn accent. Mrs. Madson was said to have slapped the man's face and left the party without her husband.

"I can't remember it even at all," Mrs. Madson said in reply to questioning.

of politics and we will not make it one. We propose to protect tenants by the strongest and most effective bill possible.

They told O'Dwyer that the information on which he based his attack was "completely false."

The rent control issue also was slated for discussion at the Fitzpatrick huddle today.

Both the Republican and Democratic bills would empower the state to take over the administration of rent control May 1 from the federal government and from New York City.

The G.O.P. bill would freeze rents until March 1, 1951, at the March 1, 1950, level.

Allow for Increases

It would allow for minor "service" increases after July 1. After Dec. 1, it would permit increases where landlords would prove they were losing money or that a "gross inequality" existed on a comparability basis.

The Democrats proposed that rents be frozen for two years, at the March 1, 1949, level. Their measure would permit increases to landlords who could prove they were losing money, but would allow no increases on the basis of "comparability" or rents charged for similar accommodations.

Republican Assemblyman D. Mallory Stephens, chairman of the state's temporary rent study commission, said the G.O.P. bill carried out many suggestions made by Charles G. Coster, chairman of the New York City Rent Commission.

Stephens has called the measure "the strongest and best rent control law ever written."

However, he said any "concrete suggestions" by O'Dwyer would be given serious consideration.

Red Agent . . .

after serving two years as assistant secretary of state for American republic affairs. A diplomat, mining engineer and promoter, he earlier was ambassador to Colombia, Cuba and Argentina.

McCarthy handed the subcommittee what he said was a copy of a confidential intelligence report made by the military attaché at the American Embassy in Madrid on June 4, 1946.

This document, signed by Col. Wendell G. Johnson, said Duran was a Russian agent and during the Spanish War was a lieutenant Colonel in the "Red Army" fighting in Spain.

It said at one point, apparently quoting a report of Spain's Franco government:

"When the international brigades were brought into the Madrid and Aranjuez fronts, Gustavo Duran formed part of the high Russian general staff, with headquarters at Tarancon and its vicinity, where they left and hidous reconciliations.

"After Tarancon we (the Spanish Intelligence Service) lost track of Duran. It appears that he went to Moscow with a delegation of male and female members of the 'Red' Army. It appears that later he was for some time in Paris.

Able to Braden

"And now he is in Washington as a collaborator of Spruille Braden, chief of a section of the State Department."

The report, as made available to newsmen, contained certain deletions. McCarthy said that the report handed the subcommittee was in full.

McCarthy also produced:

1. A letter written by Senator

Wherry (R-Neb.) to then Secretary of State James F. Byrnes Aug. 2, 1946, demanding Duran's ouster.

2. A reply to Wherry from Donald Russell, then assistant secretary of state, dated Sept. 14, 1946, saying the State Department security committee had "favorably" recommended Duran, and that he had approved the recommendation.

3. A memorandum which he identified as written by Braden in Havana, Cuba, on Dec. 21, 1943 which said:

"From my personal knowledge based on close association, Mr. Duran is not a Communist but a liberal of the highest type."

4. A letter by First Lieut. Edward J. Ruff, assistant military attaché in the Dominican Republic, addressed to the American Intelligence Service.

Ruff referred to a previous report on Duran which he said had been held up at the request of the military attaché, Havana, on grounds that it was "absolutely incorrect." He added:

"I myself, am convinced that Duran was a Communist and consider Ambassador Braden's statement that he is a liberal of the highest type to be a euphemism. Under the circumstances, I believed the reliability of our report still remains as originally submitted."

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By MAL BOYLE

New York. (AP)—Come, fellow peasants, let us sit down upon the ground and tell sad tales of the plight of kings.

The common man used to believe he bore most of the world's woes but it turns out kings have their troubles, too.

In the last century people worried because there were too many kings on thrones—and not enough in poker hands.

Today unemployment is the plague of monarchs. In olden times kings were bounced off their thrones because (1) they went mad (2) they cut off too many heads (3) a stronger relative wanted the job (4) they lost a war or (5) folks just got tired of paying them too much in taxes.

Not however, kings seem to lose their ermine and scepter over love—love that wonderful four-letter word.

They gave up their power, their prestige, their dominions—but, by cracky, the kings have showed a stubborn streak when it came to love. They have insisted on exercising the right that princes have always had in fairy tales, and commoners have had in real life. The right to go with the gal they like.

King Carol, for instance, said, "to heck with Romania—I'll take Madame Lupescu." Before he had even sat on the throne of England long enough to get it warm, Edward VIII gave it up for Mrs. Simpson "the woman I love." And widower King Leopold felt he couldn't help it if Belgium was overrun by invaders, and went right ahead and married a commoner.

All Have Stuck

Now Leopold has won a referendum showing a majority of Belgium's voters want him returned to his home country and throne. One thing you have to say about these monarchs: They have all stuck by the girl of their choice. And all the world loves a steadfast lover, crownner or crownless. Certainly all wives do.

That is why the latest jobless monarch, young Chief Seretse Khama of Bechuanaland, has much public sympathy.

The Oxford-educated chief, an involuntary exile in London, is pining for his absent bride, pretty Ruth Williams, a former typist, who is holding the fort for him back home in darkest Africa.

Seretse rules 100,000 Bamangwato, the largest tribe in Bechuanaland, a 275,000-square-mile chunk of "the unknown continent."

With a gallantry rare even in civilized lands, his tribal council has forgiven the young chief for marrying a white foreigner with no blue blood in her veins. They want him back.

But Britain's Labor Government, which relinquished India, the brightest jewel in the imperial crown, says, "No, Seretse, you stay in England and be a nice exile." There are dark whispers as to why. There are hints that South Africa wants to take over Bechuanaland, and that a chief with an Oxford accent might stand in the way.

So far the best offer the Labor Government has made to Seretse is a guarantee of about $3,750 a year if he will play ball.

Offhand, it looks like Seretse could do better on Broadway and Hollywood. I'll bet Rodgers and Hammerstein could assure him of at least $100,000 for a comic opera based on his life story—young love versus the empire. He could pick up another $100,000 or so from a film on the same subject. And there are also television and radio rights, a lecture tour, and the book-of-the-month Club to consider.

Tote 'em all up and Seretse would be sure to be solvent before the British government is. He could then probably even buy back Bechuanaland—his own country—with a down payment in dollars, and the rest contingent on how well the London Foreign Office behaved itself.

yet "hep" taste in choosing their prom bands.

All told, the Donahue organization has played more than 50 proms in the past two years with 20 more scheduled for the current semester. This record places the orchestra at the top of the list as the top college band in the country.

Appearing with Donahue and his orchestra will be two popular vocalists, Ginger Lamare and Tony Rella.

Father Green Is Speaker at Annual Breakfast Sunday

An estimated 150 members of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society heard the Very Rev. William Green, C.S.R., rector of Mount St. Alphonsus Seminary, deliver the principal address at the society's annual communion and breakfast Sunday at St. Joseph's school hall.

Father Green expressed concern over elements in the educational world which seek to destroy the students' faith in God and His teachings. Emphasizing that the faculty at the Esopus seminary has eminent experts particularly in the fields of history and sociology, he pledged their assistance to all who desire knowledge of these subjects.

Dr. John F. Larkin, as toastmaster introduced Father Green and also the Rev. John D. Simmons, moderator of the society and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stephen P. Connelly, pastor of St. Joseph's Church.

Monsignor Connelly reminded his audience that world peace can be achieved, and urged the Holy Name Society to follow the only sure path to that goal. He recalled the now famous appearance of St. Mary, the Mother of Christ to the three Portuguese children at Fatima in 1917. The monsignor said her message of prayer and reparation needs wider acceptance and compliance, and that St. Mary herself, appearing to a nun at Lipa in the Philippines as recently as 1948, pleaded for even greater efforts at prayer and reparation for the cause of peace.

Father Simmons led the group in a prayer for the deceased Holy Name members and recommended the work of the Christophers. A book describing their work entitled "You Can Change the World" will be donated to the Kingston Library this week.

First Televised President

New York (AP)—The first President to be televised, and via "network" at that, was Herbert Hoover. It happened while he was still secretary of commerce in 1927, two years before he became chief executive. The demonstration used early apparatus developed by the Bell telephone laboratories and comprised the transmission of a head and shoulders picture of Hoover from Washington to New York, partly by wire line and partly by radio.

O'Dwyer's Move Trips Up Quinn

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York, in a surprise move, apparently has left Democratic legislative leaders out on a limb again.

The city's legislative representative, Victor P. Condello, informed leaders of the Republican-controlled Legislature last night that O'Dwyer had withdrawn the city's objection to a bill that eventually would cut from five to one per cent the maximum tax that cities and counties may levy on pari-mutuel betting at horse races.

On the Senate floor, Minority Leader Elmer F. Quinn criticized the measure. He said it would cost the city $11,000,000 annually in loss of revenue now collected from the Jamaica, Aqueduct and Belmont tracks.

The city previously had filed with legislative leaders a memorandum condemning the proposal. Condello gave no reason for the switch.

The measure, drafted by the Finance Committee of both Houses, would provide for a reduction to four per cent in 1952. This would be cut one per cent annually until 1955, when only a one per cent levy would be permitted.

Democratic leaders were caught in like fashion recently when O'Dwyer unexpectedly approved Governor Dewey's program to finance and construct the state Thruway. The party long has opposed the Thruway as an "unnecessary luxury highway."

After momentary embarrassment by O'Dwyer's stand, the Democrats have decided to continue their fight against the Thruway.

Donahue Band Big Hit on Campuses; Here Friday Night

SAM DONAHUE

Continuing the policy of engaging top-flight bands for the annual St. Patrick's Day ball, the Kingston Uniformed Firemen's Association has secured Sam Donahue's popular orchestra for this year's third annual affair Friday night, March 17, at the municipal auditorium.

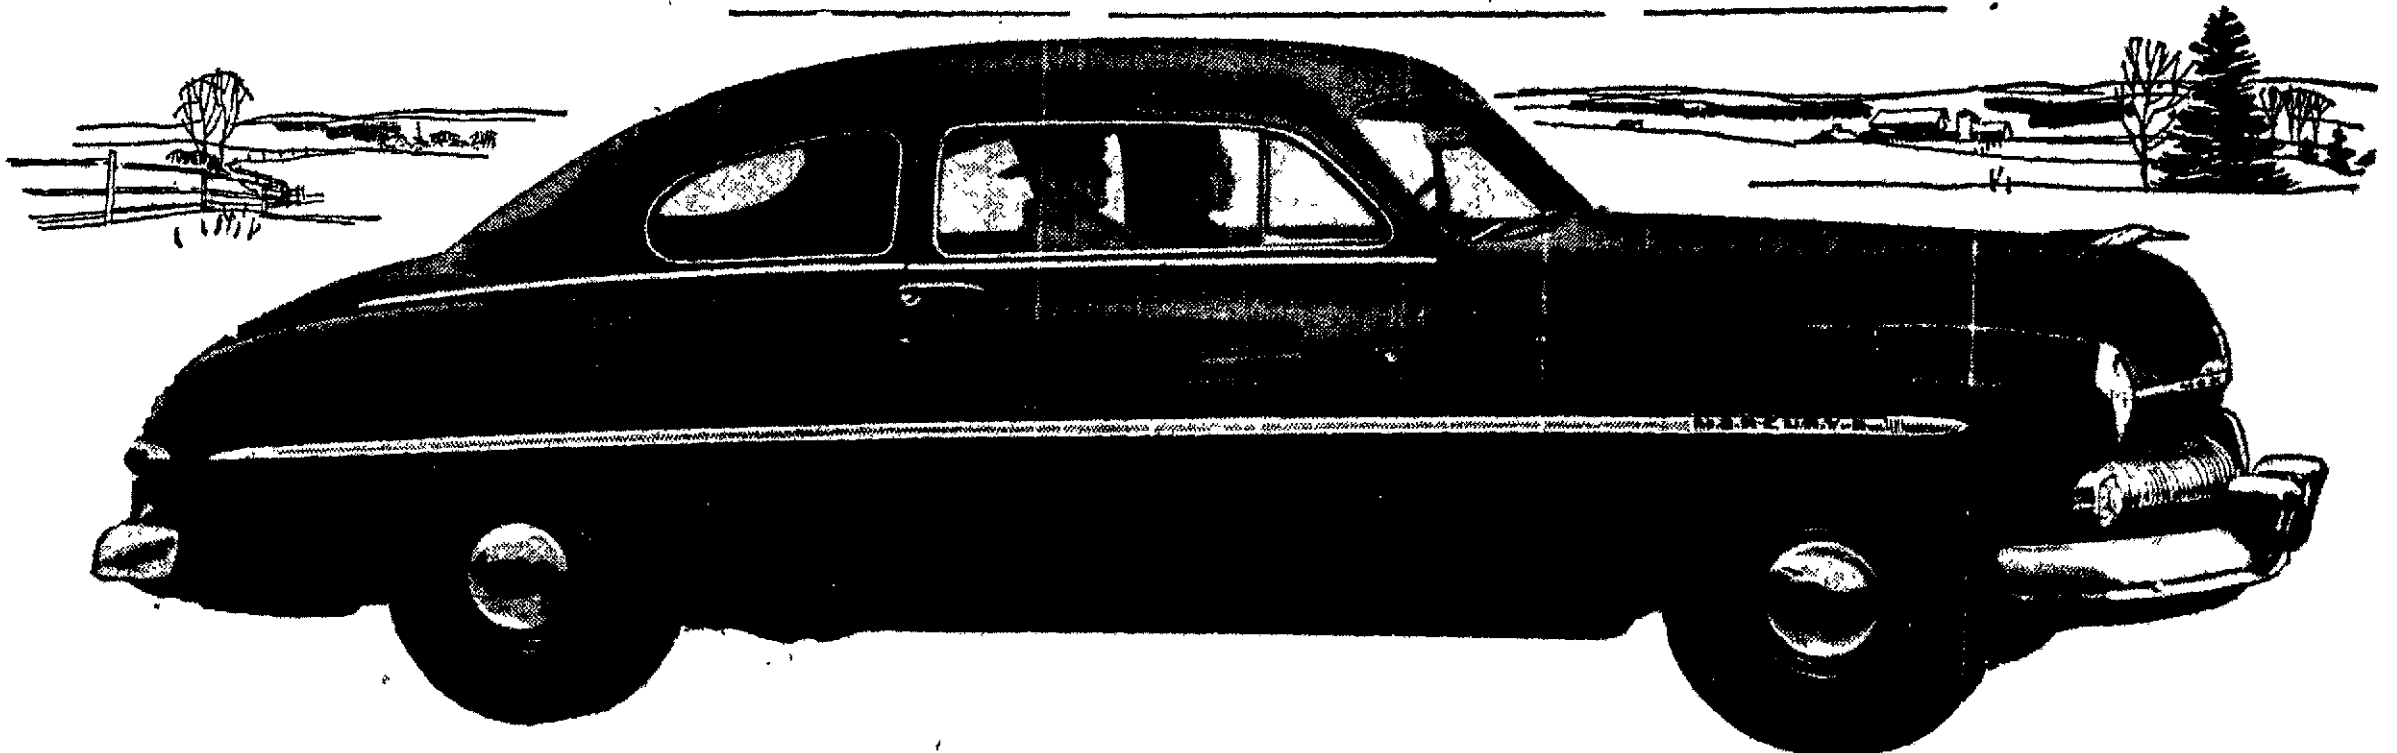

Doors will open at 7:45 Friday night and a concert by the Donahue band is scheduled for 8:45. Due to Friday night store hours in the city, the stage show will not be presented until 9:30 o'clock. Dancing will follow the entertainment until 2 a. m.

In previous years the firemen have engaged Elliot Lawrence and Jimmy Dorsey. A spokesman for the organization said today, "We're pleased to have Sam Donahue's band for this year's show. It is a big favorite with dance lovers throughout the country and we're sure the band will make a hit with our patrons."

Donahue's versatile aggregation has barnstormed throughout the country meeting with top success. The orchestra is regarded as one of the most favorite attractions on college campuses.

Included in Sam's latest tour were proms at Yale University and at Texas A. & M., two of the leading schools in the world, both known for their discriminating,

County Candidates for 'Apple Queen' Title In Festival Must Be Chosen by April 22

County queens who will compete for the title of "Hudson Valley Apple Blossom Queen" in Kingston May 6 must be selected on or before April 22, it was announced today.

This decision was made at a recent meeting of county representatives when general plans and queen selection rules for the festival were approved. The festival will start with an official luncheon for the county queens, attendants, judges, committee members and guests at noon on Saturday, May 6. This will be followed by a parade of county units, the final queen selection and coronation ceremony. County unit requirements were set very flexible. The queen must ride on an elaborate float with her attendants, at least in an open car accompanied by musical units. The float will not be a factor in selecting the Valley queen.

Rules approved for the selection of the Hudson Valley Apple Queen are as follows:

1. The entrant must be single.
2. Age between 16 and 21 inclusive.
3. A resident of the county she represents.
4. Contestants will be judged for attractiveness and personality.

Choirs From All Protestant Churches To Join Boston Chorus Friday Night

A rousing session of hymn singing led by a massed chorus of 150 voices—the choirs from all of Kingston's Protestant churches—will be a feature of the unique musical program to be given Friday night when the St. James Methodist Church presents one of America's most celebrated a cappella choirs, the Boston University Choral Art Society.

DR. H. AUGUSTINE SMITH

Dr. H. Augustine Smith, founder and conductor of the 40-voice chorus, will direct his group in a program of liturgical and secular music, and will also lead the massed Kingston chorus in a rendition of "Onward Ye Peoples," by Sibeli.

For 20 minutes the massed chorus and the audience will participate in an old-fashioned, roof-raising "hymn sing."

There will be no charge for the concert, which is presented as a public service by the Sanctuary Choir of the St. James Church, Pearl and Fair streets.

The Boston Choral Arts Society has been acclaimed throughout the United States and Canada on its regular tours which have taken it 35,000 miles in 15 years. Its broadcasts have reached an estimated 200,000,000 persons.

Kingston is the second stop on this year's tour, when the group will visit Worcester, Buffalo, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities, winding up as an important feature of the American-Canadian Music Educators Convention in St. Louis.

The program, subject to change, includes, for male voices, "How Breathe They," by Tchaikovsky from the Greek liturgy, and "Salvation Belongeth to Our God," by Tchaikovsky; for women's voices, "Comin' Through the Rye," arranged by Simeone; also "Cometh Earth's Latest Hour," by Horatio Parker from Hora Novissima; "Onward Christian Soldiers," arranged by Simeone; "There is a Balm in Gilead," by William Dawson, with a solo by Wurlitzer and Winter & Company, Winter & Company and Wurlitzer—what music to any piano man's ears. Usually, in a large city, one would have to go to two different stores to see both of these fine instruments. Here, in Kingston, one may see both of them on the same floor—at 316 Fair street. Two of the most sought after and popular makes in the entire industry and both at the warehouse of one dealer it could only happen in a comparatively small city and even then only with a reliable and responsible dealer. It simplifies your shopping, you are able to compare these most popular makes side by side and, please believe us, they are both really good. Wurlitzer's slogan is, and it is true, "More people buy Wurlitzer Pianos than those of any other name." The reason for this is that Winter & Company build pianos under many other names but reserve their best quality for their own name Winter & Company. You can't go wrong with the leaders—these two fine manufacturers have led the field for a good many years and the reason is high quality at a reasonable price. When you are up town drop in at 316 Fair street or phone 2754 for an evening appointment. See how America's most popular makes look side by side and make your choice.

MODENA

Modena, March 13—The first lesson on the making of huck towel bags, to be demonstrated by Mrs. Siah Roosa of Clintondale, will be held at Mrs. Roosa's home instead of at Hasbrouck Memorial Hall, on Thursday, March 16, as previously planned.

Mrs. Frank Elliott and Mrs. Frank Coy of the Modena Home Bureau unit will be among those giving a series of interesting demonstrations and discussions on the consumer program planned as part of the poultry show sponsored by the Ulster County Agricultural Extension Service at the municipal auditorium in Kingston Wednesday, March 15.

Following the severe electrical storm of Wednesday evening, and the downpour of rain that accompanied it, a car driven by residents of Ellenville left the highway, crashed through the guardrail surrounding Coles pond, and landed on the ice-covered pond. The bedraggled occupants of the car were revived and restored to a traveling condition by Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hyatt who live near the pond. They continued on their way.

An artesian well has been drilled on the property of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roosa, south of Modena, in preparation for their occupancy of the premises in the near future.

Mrs. Earl DeWitt spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willett Deyo in Plattkill. The Modena Fire Department was called to the property of J. E. Hasbrouck Friday afternoon when a gas tank exploded and ignited. The tank was rolled off its base and the flames extinguished, preventing their spreading to nearby buildings on the company property.

Friendly Welcome,
Give City Boost,
Asked by Kurd

A friendly welcome for visitors and a boost for our city will bring increased business to Kingston, Albert Kurd, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Kurd requested all citizens to remember these two thoughts when the city becomes host to the New York State Women's Bowling Tournament which opens Friday.

If we make visitors feel welcome and if we tell them about Kingston's good points, they in turn may tell their friends about Kingston, and the number of visitors will automatically increase, Kurd said.

"Let's not sell Kingston short," he said. "Let's not be indifferent because we do not get the visitor's dollar in the first instance. Every dollar spent here adds to the total business and somebody benefits thereby."

Kurd illustrated his contention: The local resident who receives an extra dollar from the visitor may get a hair cut, buy somebody a present, or buy some extra groceries. Thus, he said, a number of persons benefit from each new dollar brought into the community.

Lawrence A. Quilty, chairman of the Chamber's convention committee, has estimated that conventions scheduled here this year will bring a minimum of $300,000 into Kingston.

Marriage Troubles

Singapore (P)—Fifty per cent of Moslem marriages in Singapore over the last 28 years have ended in divorce. The rate of revocation-of-divorce has been 10 per cent, statistics reveal. An authority on Moslem marriages said the high rate of divorce was due to: Husband and wife living of one another; failure of the husband to maintain his wife and children; incompatibility due mainly to age differences; lack of moral restraint on the part of the husband.

†Reservation of Net Income and Addition to Surplus

AND WHERE IT WENT

IT IS IMPORTANT to keep in mind that the tools* used in the gas and electric business cost approximately $2.65 for each revenue dollar received in 1949. Consequently, the 14c portion of the revenue dollar—used for Interest, Dividends, Reservation of Net Income and Addition to Surplus—represents payment for the use of all tools* necessary to carry on the business. For 1949, this amounted to approximately 5.3c for each $1.00 of their cost.

*TOOLS—Land, buildings, structures, equipment, poles, wires, gas mains and working capital.

Several weeks ago I gave details of General Grant and his visit to Kingston, and there were met by our General Sharpe and his family to go on a special train direct to Hotel Kaaterskill.

This July 27, 1883 issue of this magazine gave the details of his arrival and stay at the hotel and the reception given to him, which reads in part: "General Grant accompanied by his wife, and niece, Miss Sharpe, and General George H. Sharpe also wife and daughter, arrived at Hotel Kaaterskill on Wednesday, on Thursday evening a reception was given preliminary to a ball, the most brilliant these lordly altitudes above the Hudson have known, by the ladies and gentlemen now staying at the hotel. The festivities were made the occasion for a tender of homage and respect to the ex-Chief Magistrate of the nation and hero of Appomattox and his wife who found many old and personal friends among the guests. The immense dining room was appropriately decorated and ablaze with electric lights, making a grand spectacle on the mountain. The dresses of the ladies were unusually elegant."

Music was given by the Germania Orchestra, with Mr. Stoll as director and the dancing kept up until late. Some of the reception committee were: General George H. Sharpe, Col. A. Loudon Snowden, Gen. Joseph E. Tobias, Major William E. Lehman, Walter Lippincott, Evan Randolph and many others.

The Kaaterskill magazine was issued semi-weekly at Hotel Kaaterskill, Catskill Mountain during the season of 1883 and was circulated in every summer resort of note in the country. All communications in regard to advertising was to be addressed to The Kaaterskill Publishing Co.

In the personal column were: "L. N. Bull of New York, dropped in on us. Ernestus Winans, director of the Western Union Telegraph, visited this evening for a stay of several days; S. D. Chickendall, president of the Stony Clove Railroad, chaperoned a pleasant coterie of friends at the Kaaterskill; William Belden, of New York, has arrived. He comes with his family and retinue of servants, and has a dozen or more horses of record. With all our heart we welcome him. Col. A. Loudon Snowden, director of the United States Mint, Philadelphia, was one of General Grant's reception committee."

Customs Men Ride Liners

Tel Aviv, Israel (P)—The Israeli government is trying something new to make things easier for tourists. Customs officials are being dispatched to various ports abroad to board all liners bound for Israeli ports with hundreds of tourists. They check over the passports of tourists who may be spending a few days or longer in Israel during a Mediterranean cruise. They tell passengers just what they can bring into the country, assess any necessary customs duties and hand over Israeli pounds in exchange for American or other foreign currency. The Israeli have found this system of making part of the voyage with incoming tourists revenue concession.

Home Accidents Reduced
Chicago (AP)—Accidents in the home killed 30,500 persons in the U. S. last year. That was three per cent under the 1948 toll. The gray and graying folks who are supposed to use the caution that comes with the passing year, had the worst record. Fatalities went down in all age groups, but one—the 45 to 64 bracket.

Pilot Is Freed
New York, March 14 (AP)—George R. Neuhauser, 38, first airplane pilot ever to get a aerial traffic ticket here, was freed yesterday of misdemeanor charges.

A three-judge special session court held there was reasonable doubt that Neuhauser violated a city law-flying law last July 24 in the vicinity of LaGuardia Field. A policeman had been posted in the airport control tower after residents of Queens county protested that low-flying planes were disturbing their neighborhoods.

Neuhauser, a pilot of 13 years' experience, flies for Northeast Airlines. He testified that he was not aware of violating any rules as he made his approach to the airport before he was ticketed.

Our present calendar makes an error of gaining one day in every 3,000 years.

Catholic Educator Decries Sex Teaching

Detroit, March 14 (AP)—A prominent Catholic educator spoke out today against sex education in schools, calling it a "most flagrant invasion into the domain of the family."

Mother M. Beronice, O.S.U., Ph.D., director of the Catholic Family Institute of the College of New Rochelle, New Rochelle, N. Y., spoke at the 18th annual convention of the National Catholic Conference in Family Life.

Films and group instruction in schools, she told 500 delegates, act to "usurp the parents' right to train youth in the delicate matter of sex."

"By nature and by grace,"

Mother Beronice added, "Catholic parents are best equipped for the sublime privilege of guiding their children."

Opening the 18th annual conference yesterday, Edward Cardinal Mooney declared that "religion alone can build a home strong enough to withstand the stress of modern living."

Discussion groups in the three-day affair cover various home problems.

Casey and Purdy Spark Easy Win

Just like almost everyone suspected when the lineup of the City Recreation Basketball League was announced earlier in the season, the powerful Marlborough Legion quintet has come on to capture the 1949-50 championship.

The southern Ulster sharpshooters—who also rate as a powerhouse in the strong Orange-Sullivan League—battered Chez Emile, 59 to 28, in the finals of the Shaughnessy playoff last night at the municipal auditorium.

Here and there along the way, the Legion cagers had a rough night but in the showdown contest they proved their class by taking command in the first quarter, 12-4, and romping to an easy victory.

Old, Old Story
The trademark of the Marlborough squad—scoring balance—was evident in the final boxscore. Purdy, the ace center, knocked off 14 points, while holding Big George Bloom to seven, five from the foul line.

Individual scoring leader for the winners was Casey, one of the top O-S point scorers, who accounted for seventeen with seven fields and three singletons. Murphy hit for 12, while Elmasi Valentino and Manasse shared 17.

Bloom and Clark Mains shared 15 points for Chez Emile, the pro baseball pitcher leading with four baskets. Marlborough jumped off to a 12-4 edge in the first period and outscored the Chezies 15-8 in the second quarter to lead 27-10 at the half.

The boxscore:
Chez Emile (28)
Lone, rf 3 0 6
Glaser, rf 1 0 2
Holstein, lf 1 1 3
Bloom, c 1 5 7
Mains, rg 4 0 8

Scoring by quarters:

Massa Rally Defeats Stan Warren, 125-122

C. N. Massa defeated Stan Warren, 125-122, in the city pocket billiard tournament last night at the Kaslich Parlor, coming from behind at the 119-113 point to nail down the victory.

High runs were a pair of 16s and 15 for Warren, and 13 and 14 for Massa.

The tournament ends Wednesday night with a match between Bob East and C. N. Massa. East can tie for third place with Julius Teller by defeating Massa.

Y Finals Tonight

The Y.M.C.A. Shaughnessy basketball finals are scheduled at 8:30 tonight between Harry's Angels and Wiltwyck Motors on the Y.M.C.A. court.

The Motormen rule slight favorites but Eric Goercke and Ward Dunham are expected to keep the Angels in the game all the way.

An attractive preliminary is slated with the Y.M.C.A. Triangles and Kingston High School Seconds clashing in the third and deciding game of their hotly contested series at 7:30.

The Billiard Champion and His Unwilling Victims

Walcott Kayoes Skhor in First

Philadelphia, March 14 (U.P.)—Jersey Joe Walcott, who wants a fourth crack at the heavyweight boxing title, added weight to his argument last night at the expense of Baltimore's Johnny Skhor.

The 36-year-old Camden, N. J., ring veteran belted Skhor with an overhand right after 1:34 of the first round of their scheduled 10-rounder at the Arena. Skhor toppled backwards like a felled redwood tree. He made an effort to rise at the count of six but dropped to his face, unable to continue. He finally managed to leave the ring under his own power.

For Walcott—twice beaten by Joe Louis and once by Ezzard Charles in heavyweight title fights—it was the fourth straight knockout victory. In recent months, Walcott has felled Sweden's Olle Tandberg, Philadelphia's Harold Johnson, and Cuba's Omelio Agrumonte.

Now, says Walcott's manager, Felix Ezzardino, Walcott wants one of two things—a fight with Charles, National Boxing Association champ, or one with Louis, the man who twice defeated him.

Rupp's Wildcats Get Severe Test

New York, March 14 (U.P.)—What Coach Adolph Rupp calls the best potential quintet in Kentucky history—he's already had some of the nation's greatest—expects plenty of trouble tonight from darkhorse C.C.N.Y. in the National Invitation Basketball tournament.

If they're as good as the Bluegrass Baron believes, the Kentucky five, made up mostly of sophomores, has a chance to crack a mark set by Wildcat wonder teams of recent vintage. Rupp's boys won the N.I.T. in 1946 and the N.C.A.A. in 1948 and 1949.

But classy Ed Warner will have plenty to say about Kentucky tonight. The flexible 6-foot 214-inch Negro turned in the tournament's best performance Saturday in leading C.C.N.Y.'s rout of defending champion San Francisco.

The Wildcats, seeded second behind Bradley, are four-point favorites to whip the metropolitan five. Kentucky had advanced to the quarter-finals on a bye.

Bradley Wins
Duquesne plays LaSalle in the 8 p. m. (E.S.T.) curtain-raiser. The Pittsburgh Dukes, although third seeded, rate three points under LaSalle, 72-66 victor over Arizona Saturday. LaSalle is unseeded.

In last night's games, Bradley and St. John's overpowered two fast-rolling opponents in the middle of the second half; then went on to win comfortably.

The Peoria, Ill., Braves, rated the nation's No. 1 team in the final Associated Press poll, defeated Syracuse, 78-66. St. John's (Syracuse) Kentucky, 69-60.

Both losing teams had taller boys who were out against the better-manned victors. Tonight's winners meet in the other semi-final match Thursday. The final is Saturday.

Triangles Score Fifteenth Win

Scoring heavily in the second half, the Y.M.C.A. Triangles smothered the New Paltz Juniors, 87-28, Saturday on the Y court, for their 15th victory in 16 games this season.

Piling up an 18-2 edge in the first quarter, the Triangles extended their lead to 32-6 at the half and then turned the contest into a rout with a 55-point barrage in the second half.

Five of the ten players who figured in the Triangle scoring hit in double figures. Andy Jund led with eight baskets. Bob Cannon, Jr., had 14, Orr 13, while Mitchell and Haggerty limped 10 apiece.

Pomer, New Paltz center, led his club with 14 marblers.

The Triangles are scheduled to play the third and deciding game of their hotly contested series with the K.H.S. seconds in the prelin tonight at the Y at 7:30. The boxscore:

Game Club Donates

To Next Yule Program

Woodstock, March 14 — The March meeting of the Woodstock Fish and Game Club was held at the clubhouse on the recreation field on Monday night.

Chester Wolven proposed a resolution that $10 be placed at the disposal of Riege Simmonds, who is the representative of the club attending the meetings of the Madison Square Club in connection with the Christmas program for 1950.

In a discussion of the fish and game quota given the club by the state, Simmonds stated that there would be no more rabbits given by the state. There will be a 15 per cent increase in fish to be placed in the local streams, and there will be a slight decrease in the number of pheasants placed at the club's disposal.

It was announced that the next Federation meeting will be held at the county court house in Kingston on Thursday, March 23.

No Movies

Woodstock, March 14 — Mrs. Philip Fitz Patrick has announced that there will be no movies on Friday evenings at the art gallery until further notice. The series may be resumed some time in April.

The Oultons have an extensive repertoire, but will stick to Irish numbers Friday. They'll start with "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." There are 12 acts on the bill, which is considered one of the best home-talent programs ever arranged for local presentation. (Freeman Photo)

"We will intensify our fight against bigotry in all its ugly forms," she said in a statement, "and we will not be deterred by the professional Red-baiters and race-haters." Court Brief Filed For Dr. Melish by Bishops, Clerics

New York, March 14 (AP)—A court brief was filed yesterday by a group of eight Protestant Episcopal bishops and 1,072 other clergymen of the denomination in behalf of the Rev. Dr. John Howard Melish.

Appeal from Dr. Melish's ouster as rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Brooklyn is pending in the Appellate Division of the New York State Supreme Court.

The brief—filed by the group as "friends of the court"—contended the vestry of the Holy Trinity Church had "no canonical right" to petition for the ouster of the rector "in opposition to the wishes of the congregation." The brief held that under canon law governing the church in the United States the vestry "has merely the agents and legal representatives of the parish in matters concerning the relation of the parish and its clergy."

Dr. Melish was removed because of his refusal to interfere with the "outside" activities of his son and assistant rector, the Rev. William Howard Melish.

The younger Melish is a leader in the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, which is on the Department of Justice list as subversive organizations. The vestry initiated the ouster move a year ago, and Bishop James P. De Wolfe of the diocese of Long Island ordered the vestry an rector removed. A State Supreme Court justice upheld the ouster, and the case then moved to the Appellate Division. The petitioners in yesterday's brief contended that if the justice ruling were sustained it would have "an unprecedented and far-reaching effect upon the entire ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the whole concept of the pastoral relationship in parishes of that church throughout the United States."

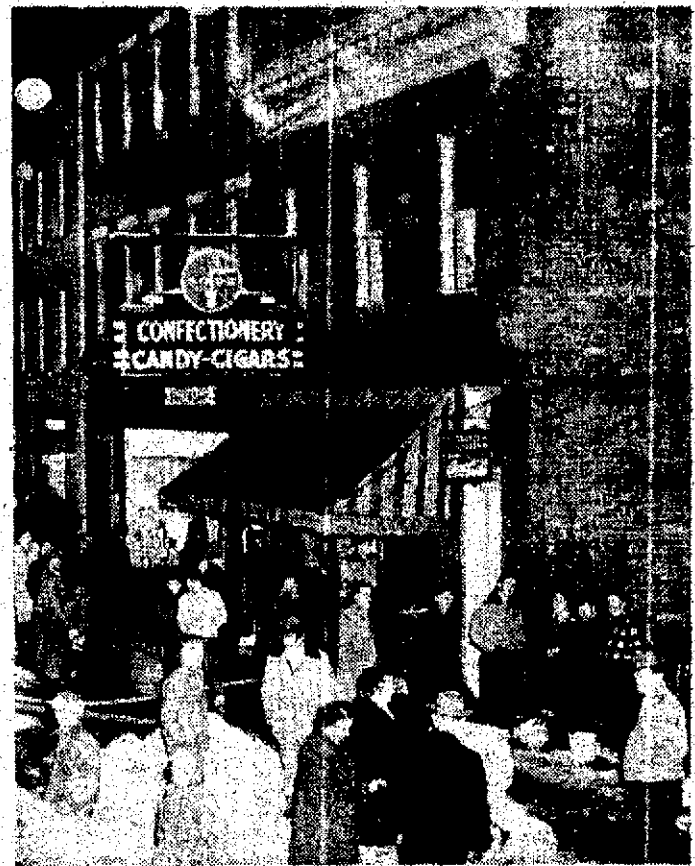

Sun Oil Facing 8 Actions on Fire

Eight actions against the Sun Oil Company, and others, were taken up in Supreme Court Monday. The actions arise out of a fire at the former Marx Service Station and repair shop on Route 259 in the town of Lloyd. During the filing of an action on the premises a fire started damaging the property, the contents of the station and actions have been started to recover also for loss of business caused by the fire. It is alleged that the original service station was erected some time ago and later an addition to the station was built. That addition covered a portion of the original tanks and the filler stub was inside the building, making it necessary to fill the tank from inside the building. On the day of the fire the tank was being filled when for some reason gas overflowed and the fire resulted. Actions originally were brought by Ann and Christ Erichsen, who were represented by Michael Nar-done. This involved the real property. That action was settled. Other actions still pending are brought by Frank Marx and others, represented by John F. Wadlin; and Oscar Elliott, U. Parker Decker, Roger D. Peterlin, Frank Jones and Anthony De-Mare, all actions being against the Sun Oil Company and others, represented by Roy L. Featherstone.

Says City Can Manage
New York, March 14 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer says York city is prepared to take over and operate private bus lines when necessary. "When the proper time comes," he said at a news conference yesterday, "New York city will meet the situation as it has met every other obligation." The mayor made the comment in challenging a report by the State Public Service Commission, which is in conflict with city authorities over control of fares on private transit lines. O'Dwyer reiterated his stand that the city government has the right and responsibility to determine the fares.

Ruzzo Fire Draws Many; Contractor's Office Damaged

A fire in the one-story concrete block addition to the Salvatore Ruzzo building, 670 Broadway last night destroyed the storm-door entrance to the structure and caused smoke and heat damage. Men and equipment from Central and Wiltwyck stations and Wicks Engine Company answered the alarm at 7:41 p. m., and the blaze was confined to the rear structure which is used for offices, storage and blueprint purposes by Amedeo Cercone, contractor.

Maben Smith, who operates the Victor Ruzzo store in the lower floor front of the main building, discovered the fire and called firemen. The blaze caused some smoke damage on the second floor of the front building.

Firemen were called at 6:59 p. m. to a house owned by Frederick Hofbauer at 81 Fair street, where a fire caused by a defective chimney caused some damage to wainscoting in one of four apartments in the building.

Education Bill Shelved

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The House Labor Committee today shelved federal aid to education, but immediately turned to consideration of a school construction program. Committee members leaving a closed door session reported the committee voted 13 to 12 to reject the Senate-passed bill providing $300,000,000 for school assistance to the states. The committee had been trying for nearly six weeks to crack the deadlock which had blocked House action on the measure.

New York, March 14 (AP)—W. Averell Harriman has been announced as the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Democratic State Committee, and the New York Times said today he thus had been formally projected as a possible candidate for governor. Asks He Be Premier Helsinki, Finland, March 14 (AP)—President Juho Kusti asked Aigener Leader Otto Kekkonen, 20-foot embalement after jumping today to become premier at the head of a new coalition cabinet containing Communists. The move to include Communists—out of the government since July, 1948—in a national unity cabinet was viewed as a move to answer recent Russian charges that Finland was pursuing an anti-Soviet policy and lining up with the west.

O. & W. Freight Is Derailed; Several Cars Are Wrecked

Ferndale, N. Y., March 14 (AP)—Repair crews worked in a swirling snow early today to clear a section of New York, Ontario and Western Railroad track where nine freight cars were derailed last night.

Several of the cars—two loaded coal cars and seven box cars carrying farm implements—were wrecked when they plunged off a 20-foot embankment after jumping the track about a mile south of here.

No one was reported injured. Repair crews, brought to the scene from Cadosia, N. Y., said they would have the tracks cleared before the next train was due over the line this morning. The Diesel-powered freight train, with a crew of six, was bound from Sidney to Middletown, N. Y., when the last nine cars of the 65-car train left the tracks.

Cause of the derailment was not determined. However, state police said markings on railroad ties showed that a wheel of one car had been off the rail, and running on the ties for about three miles before the accident.

An investigation was opened by Fred Hawk, of Middletown, general superintendent of the line. Railroad officials said the farm implements were consigned for shipment to India from New York city, eventual destination of the train.
